

Who is Jesus?

Everything starts with a person.

In short. The Church teaches that Jesus Christ is true God and true man: the Son of God who, without ceasing to be God, became a man and our brother.^{1,2} He came to save us by reconciling us with God, and his Resurrection is the crowning truth of our faith in him.^{3,4}

Key points

- Jesus is true God and true man, not part God and part man.¹
- The Word became flesh to save us and so that we might know God's love.^{3,5}
- Christ died for our sins and rose again; the Resurrection is a real event.^{6,7}
- Faith is a personal act: the free response of the human person to God who reveals himself.⁸

Try this, this week

- 1. Read one Gospel slowly. Mark is the shortest. One chapter a day is plenty.
- 2. Ask his question out loud. Read Mark 8:29 and answer it honestly, even if your answer is "I don't know yet."
- 3. Write down your questions. Keep a short list. Every question is welcome.
- 4. Bring the list to someone. A priest or a Catholic friend will be glad to talk it through.

"Jesus saith to them: But whom do you say that I am? Simon Peter answered and said: Thou art Christ, the Son of the living God."

Matthew 16:15–16, Douay–Rheims

Common questions

Was Jesus just a good teacher?

The Church confesses that Jesus is inseparably true God and true man.² He said of himself, "I and the Father are one."⁹

How do we know he rose from the dead?

The Catechism calls the Resurrection a real event, with manifestations that were historically verified, as the New Testament bears witness.⁷ Peter and the Twelve were the primary witnesses, and Paul speaks of more than five hundred others to whom Jesus appeared.^{10,11} It also remains at the very heart of the mystery of faith, as something that transcends and surpasses history.¹²

Remember: Start with the person, not the rules.
